

Checkout & Payment

The system allows users to proceed to checkout after adding items to the shopping cart. Users can review cart details, enter payment information, and confirm the order. The system validates payment details before completing the transaction. The checkout and payment process ensures that users can complete transactions securely and accurately, which is a critical component of an online shopping system (Laudon & Laudon, 2020).